

Paediatric Emergency Medicine Simulation

This one day course is a fully immersive course focusing on the management of paediatric emergencies in the Emergency Department. Incorporates practical demonstrations and hands-on simulated scenarios. It is delivered by an experienced faculty and utilises cutting edge simulation technology.

The course will provide exposure to several challenging paediatric emergency presentations in a safe learning environment.

Cost: £150 (inc lunch)

Dates: 28th September 2017
25th January 2018
24th May 2018

Time: 8.00 am—4.00 pm

Course Objectives

- To improve skills in how to assess and manage the critically ill child
- To gain confidence in practical paediatric skills
- To enhance situational

Eligibility:

ST3 and above in Emergency Medicine
ST3 and above in Paediatrics

No. of spaces: 6

How to apply: E-mail address below your name, specialty, grade, hospital and mobile number

For more information contact cresta.annett@belfasttrust.hscni.net

RVH 028 90633514)